

Safety & Health Policy

The BC Petrochemical continually strives to improve Environment Safety and Health practices with the objective of achieving a healthy work environment and prevents accidents and occupational illnesses so far as it reasonably practical. With the mission of providing a safe and healthful workplace environment for employees. The company is committed to.

- Comply with all the applicable Safety, Health and Environment Legislation and other Occupational Safety and Health Requirements.
- Familiarize all its employees and related parties on Safety, Health and Environment by providing training, information, instruction and facilities.
- Increased employee awareness of the overall safe systems of work with environment is maintained as free as it reasonable practical, from any and all recognized hazard.
- Personal exposure to chemical and other health hazards shall be kept as low as reasonably achievable. This goal will be met by providing appropriate work practices, engineering control and personal protective equipment.
- Ensure all accidents, work-related illnesses & diseases or near misses are reported and corrective measures being taken to prevent recurrence.
- Emphasize and stress continual improvement in improving our Environmental & Occupational Safety & Health Performance for the plant and employees.

.....
En Suhaimi Abdul Rahman
Managing Director
BC Petrochemical Sdn Bhd

1 September 2007